WELCOME VAN BUREN COUNTY EMPLOYEE

It gives me great pleasure to welcome you to employment with Van Buren County. You are now a member of a hard working team dedicated to providing needed quality service to residents of Van Buren County.

This revised 2016 version of the Van Buren County Employee Handbook adopted by the Van Buren County Quorum Court is intended as a reference guide for your use in the event you have any employee related questions that may occur during your employment with Van Buren County. There are new and revised policies throughout the handbook and it is mandatory that each new and old employee review the handbook annually. This handbook cannot anticipate or address every circumstance or question that may apply to individual employees. If a situation arises that is not covered in this handbook, contact your department head, elected official or immediate supervisor.

Elected Officials who serve as department heads may have different or added employee policies depending on the nature of their services. If so, these policies should be put in written form and included as supplements to this general policy. We have attempted to list all of those in this handbook, but if you failed to see one that may apply to your job, please contact your supervisor.

I wish you the best of luck and success in your position and hope that your employment with Van Buren County will be pleasant, productive and a rewarding experience.

Cordially,

Van Buren County Judge

WHAT VAN BUREN COUNTY EXPECTS OF YOU

The primary function of any government agency is to provide service to the public. Your job was created to provide a specific service for the citizens of Van Buren County. You are expected to give this service to the best of your ability and to perform your job with a spirit of courtesy, willing assistance and appreciation for the responsibility inherent in your job. You are a very important person to the citizens of our county who will be the recipients of the services that you can provide. Whether your job demands enforcement of laws and/or ordinances, fixing county roads, providing recycling pickup services, doing secretarial duties, filing records or answering enquires from the public, it is extremely important that your contact with the public be fair, respectful and courteous. Treat all enquires as if you were on the receiving end of the information or assistance. REMEMBER THE GOLDEN RULE! And, also, remember this applies to your fellow associates and other county employees.

Just as County Government believes each county employee is an important individual, the individual right of all citizens should be respected. It is essential that every citizen and fellow employee be treated with dignity and consideration. The public will judge your department and/or office and all of Van Buren County Government by your attitude, efficiency and courtesy.

This policy of non-discrimination shall be applied to all phases of employment such as recruitment, selection, appointment, placement, promotion, demotion, transfer, training, wages, benefits, working conditions and such human resource actions as layoff, recall discharge, disciplinary actions and performance evaluations.

UNDERSTANDING OUR COUNTY GOVERNMENT STRUCTURE

If you haven't worked for a government entity before now, it is important that you have some information about how we work. Each elected official is solely responsible for his or her area of government. That is to say, each elected official is like the CEO of his or her own publicly held company. Each elected official may adopt additional policies and procedures, provided they do not conflict with the policies stated in this document. Within the County, the following are elected Officials:

County Judge	Assessor	Circuit Clerk
Collector	Coroner	County Clerk
Prosecuting Attorney	Sheriff	Treasurer

The following departments report to the County Judge:

Building Maintenance and Janitorial Services, Office of Emergency Management, 911, Solid Waste, Recycling, Road Department, Veterans Services, Animal Control and Election Coordinator.

Some employees are County employees, but they report to a State of Arkansas Employer. This does not include the case with the Prosecuting Attorney's Office, Public Defenders Office, various Circuit Judges, Drug Task Force and District and Juvenile Court.

THE QUORUM COURT

The Quorum Court is the legislative body of the County comprised of 9 members, known as Justices of the Peace, from various respective districts based on population. They exercise local legislative authority to levy taxes, appropriate public funds for the expenses of the County in a manner prescribed by ordinances. They can fix the number and compensation of deputies, county employees and county officials within a minimum and maximum to be determined by law.

The County Judge is the Chief Executive Officer for county government. He or she presides over the Quorum Court-without a vote, but with the power to veto.

Two websites may help you better understand the roles and responsibilities of the various areas of government. The Van Buren County Website, www.vanburencountyark.com, and the Arkansas Association of Counties Website is www.arcountries.org.

When working for an elected official it is important to remember that when elections occur there is always the possibility that you may get a new boss. While it rarely happens, and when it does it is minimal; newly elected officials have the authority to bring in new staff. Elections happen every two years on even numbered years. If your job is not going to be renewed, you will be notified by the newly elected official by December 31st of the even numbered years.

1. COUNTY EMPLOYMENT POLICY

- A. The purpose of this document is to establish “at-will employment” as the default employment policy for the County and to state the General Employment Policies issued by the Quorum Court in its capacity as the legislative branch of County Government. The General Employment Policies set forth herein apply informally to all county employees because they relate exclusively to “employee practices and policies of a general nature.”
- B. Executive Employment Policies are those adopted by an elected county officer to apply to the employees of that office in the course of administering “the day-to-day” administrative responsibility of his or her elected office. A.C.A. §14-14-805(2). An elected official can create and administer his own employee discipline measures, subject, however, to the condition that they cannot contravene the general, uniformly applicable measures adopted by the Quorum Court.
- C. Nothing in this General Employment Policy adopted by the Quorum Court creates a property right in employment nor establishes grounds upon which discipline or dismissal must be based.
- D. Gender. Words importing one (1) gender include and apply to the other gender as well.
- E. It is the County’s policy to provide equal opportunity for all qualified persons; to prohibit unlawful discrimination in employment practice, compensation practices, personnel procedures and administration of benefit plans; and to otherwise provide the same/similar treatment and opportunities to all persons similarly situated.

2. AT-WILL EMPLOYMENT

- A. All employment with the County is “at-will” which means the employee can be terminated with or without cause and with or without notice at any time at the option of either the County or the employee, except as otherwise provided by the law. By accepting employment, employees agree to conform to the rules and regulations of the County, including any changes, deletions or additions to the rules and regulations during the course of their employment.
- B. Nothing in this Handbook or any other document provided to the employee is intended to be, nor should it be, construed as a contract that employment or any other benefit will continue for any time. No Van Buren County official or employee shall promise or guarantee any employee employment for any period of time nor make any guarantee of salary or benefits.

- C. Van Buren County employees may be disciplined, demoted, transferred or discharged at any time with or without notice or cause. No statements found in this handbook are intended to or will limit a supervisor's right to discipline an employee providing there is a reason.
- D. Employees, however, cannot be terminated if done in an illegal or unlawful manner pursuant to state and federal laws.

3. CLASSES OF EMPLOYMENT

Van Buren County has the following classes of employees with the exception of Law Enforcement:

- C. Extra-help – Employees not having a regularly scheduled tour of duty.
- D. Contract – Persons who are contracted for employment.

4. HIRING/REHIRING/PROMOTING

- A. The at-will employment policy set forth herein applies equally to hiring and promoting. Nothing herein shall create a property right in employment, entitlement to be hired or promoted, or an expectancy of continued employment. Nothing herein established is grounds upon which hiring or promoting must be based.
- B. Prospective employees who are required to register with the selective services system must certify compliance with the Military Selective Service Act as a condition for employment.
- C. When an employee is hired into a County position from another Government office or previous employment of similar training and background, the current or newly elected official shall have the right to hire them at a comparable rate of pay and benefits, that falls within the current county pay scale in their office/department.
- D. Any County employee who terminates their employment with the County or is laid off by the County may be subsequently rehired before a one (1) year separation could begin employment at their former pay level and benefits. After a one (1) year separation, employment may begin at the entry level and former years of service may be reinstated after a three (3) month probationary period. After a five (5) year separation of employment with the County, the appropriate official would need Quorum Court approval for reinstatement of former pay and benefits consideration.

5. HIRING PROCEDURES

- A. Applications for employment will be accepted from any person who wishes to apply with Van Buren County; all applications will be kept on file for ninety (90) days.
- B. No elected official shall be allowed to employ any relative in his or her immediate family to work within the County office or department he/she supervises and for which he/she is responsible. 6. BACKGROUND CHECKS

Depending on the type of job you may have or you are seeking elsewhere in the County, you may be required to undergo a background check such as criminal and/or credit. The results of the background check will determine if that person fits the profile of the job duties. Marks on your records will not necessarily automatically strike you off as a candidate. All persons seeking jobs that require it will have to sign a consent form before a background check will be done. Forms can be obtained in the County Clerk's office.

7. WORK REQUIREMENTS

12. PROGRESSIVE DISCIPLINE

- A. The County has specific work standards and regulations, which are considered conditions of employment. In the event of misconduct or unsatisfactory job performance, the following policy should be adhered.
- B. Progressive discipline may be applied in those cases where the severity of the problem does not warrant bypassing steps or immediate termination. The County may use this warning system to provide both the employee and County with a vehicle for addressing and resolving personnel issues. The purpose of progressive discipline is to recognize the importance of early identification and take prompt action to successfully resolve the problem. Documentation of the infraction and date/time should be recorded so that it can be referenced. The three-step procedure consists of:
 1. Oral Warning (documented and signed by Department Head only)
 2. Written Reprimand (documented and signed by both Department Head and employee)
 3. Termination
- C. If in any case the employee refuses to sign disciplinary documentation, a witness should sign documentation of employee's actions. If progressive discipline has been properly implemented and documented and the employee's performance does not improve, the Supervisor will recommend discharge.
- D. It should be stressed that elected officials and supervisors are not bound by a progressive discipline formula in the cases of serious offenses. Some offenses are serious enough that no oral warning or written reprimand need to precede disciplinary action resulting in a suspension without pay or termination. However, it should be noted the purpose of progressive discipline is not termination. Ideally, through this approach, performance of the employee is to improve and become productive and protect the County's investment in the employee.

Employees are encouraged to be active in support of our political system of our country. However, employees are prohibited during working hours from actively campaigning for candidates for performing any activity, which could appear to put the County in a partisan position. “No public officer, deputy or assistant shall devote any time or labor during usual office hours toward the campaign of any other candidate for office.” A.C.A. § 7-1-103(a)(2)(A). No campaign posted signs on County Property.

D. Hearing Issues and Burdens of Proof

1. Property Interest Hearings

- i. Since this county employment policy affirmatively creates at-will employment as the default employment policy of the County, the employee has the burden of proving by a preponderance of the evidence that he or she has a property interest in his or her employment.
- ii. Where the employee meets his or her burden of proof, the supervisory official has the burden of proving "just cause" for the supervisory official's intended discipline or dismissal of the employee.

2. Liberty Interest Hearing – Claim of Unconstitutional Retaliation

- i. The employee has the burden of proving by a preponderance of the evidence that he or she has engaged in constitutionally protected conduct that was a substantial or motivating factor in any adverse employment decision, discipline, or dismissal.
- ii. Where the employee meets his or her burden of proof, the supervisory official has the burden of proving that the adverse employment decision, discipline, or dismissal would have occurred even in the absence of the constitutionally protected conduct.

3. Liberty Interest Hearing - Claim of Illegal Discrimination Due to Race, Color, Religion, Gender, Sex, Age, or National Origin

- i. The grieving applicant or employee has the burden of proving by a preponderance of the evidence that he or she is being treated or effected differently than another person who, other than for race, color, religion, gender, sex, age, or national origin, is similarly situated with the applicant or the employee.
- ii. Where the applicant or employee meets his or her burden of proof, the supervisory official has the burden of proving by a preponderance of the evidence that the proven inequality of treatment or effect is necessary to effectuate a compelling county objective.

4. Liberty Interest Hearing - Claim of Discrimination Due to a Disability

- i. The grieving applicant or employee has the burden of proving by a preponderance of the evidence that he or she is a qualified individual with a disability who, because of the disability, is being treated or effected differently than another person in regard to job application, procedures, advancement, dismissal, compensation, training or other terms, conditions, or privileges of employment.
- ii. Where the applicant or employee meets his or her burden of proof, the supervisory official has the burden of proving by a preponderance of the evidence that the proven difference in treatment or effect is job-related and necessary to effectuate a legitimate County objective, that performance of the job cannot be accomplished by reasonable accommodation, or that the needed accommodation would result in an undue hardship on the County.
- iii. Definitions: The following definitions apply to claims of discrimination due to a disability:
 - (a) “Disabled” or “Disability”: A physical or mental impairment that substantially limits on or more of the major life activities of an individual; having a record of such an impairment; or being regarded as having such an impairment.
 - (b) “Regarded as having such impairment”; includes those with conditions such as obesity or cosmetic disfigurement and individuals perceived to be a high risk of incurring a work-related injury.
 - (c) “Discrimination” includes:
 - (i) Limiting, segregating or classifying a job applicant or employee in a manner that adversely affects his or her opportunities or status;
 - (ii) Participating in contractual or other arrangement that have the effect of subjecting individuals with disabilities to discrimination;

 - (iv) Imposing or applying tests and other selection criteria that screen out or tend to screen out an individual with a disability or a class of individuals with disabilities unless the test or selection criteria are job-related and consistent with County necessity;
 - (v) Failing to make reasonable accommodations to the known limitations of a qualified individual with a disability unless the covered entity can demonstrate that an accommodation would impose an undue hardship on the operation of the County; or

(vi) Denying employment opportunities because a qualified individual with a disability needs reasonable accommodations.

(d) "Reasonable accommodation": examples include.

(i) Making existing facilities used by employees readily accessible to the disabled.

(ii) Job restructuring.

(iii) Flexible or modified work schedules.

(iv) Reassignments to other positions; and

(v) The acquisition or modifications of equipment or devices.

(e) "Undue Hardship": an action requiring "significant difficulty or expense," considering:

(i) The overall size of the County with respect to the number of employees, number and type of facilities and size of the budget;

(ii) The type of operation maintained by the County including the composition and structure of the work force of that entity; and

(iii) The nature and cost of the accommodation needed.

(f) "Qualified individual with a disability": An individual with a disability who with or without reasonable accommodation, can perform the "essential functions" of the employment position held or desired.

(g) "Essential Functions": Job tasks that are fundamental but not marginal (not every job task is to be included in determining the essential functions).

5. Liberty Interest Hearing - Claim of Discrimination Due to No Rational Basis for a Difference in Treatment

i. The grieving employee has the burden of proving by a preponderance of the evidence that he or she is being treated differently than another person otherwise similarly situated with the employee.

ii. Where the employee meets his or her burden of proof, the supervisory official has the burden of proving by a preponderance of the evidence that the reason for the difference in treatment is rationally related to the effectuation of a legitimate county objective.

6. Liberty Interest Hearing - Claim of Arbitrary Decision Due to No Legitimate Governmental Objective
 - i. The grieving employee has the burden of proving by a preponderance of the evidence that the action taken against him or her is not rationally related to the effectuation of any conceivable legitimate governmental objective of the County.
 - ii. Where the employee meets his or her burden of proof, the supervisory official has the burden of proving by a preponderance of the evidence that the action taken against the grieving employee is rationally related to the effectuation of a conceivable legitimate governmental objective of the County.

7. Liberty Interest Hearing - Claim of Arbitrary Decision Due to Violation of Arkansas Public Policy
 - i. The grieving employee has the burden of proving by a preponderance of the evidence that he or she is being treated in a manner that violates the public policy of the State of Arkansas (as established by the Arkansas General Assembly or the Arkansas Supreme Court).
 - ii. Where the employee meets his or her burden of proof, the supervisory official has the burden of proving that the adverse employment decision, discipline, or dismissal is not in violation of the established public policy of the State of Arkansas.

8. Name Clearing Hearing - Claimed Deprivation of Liberty Interest in Future Employment
 - i. The grieving applicant or employee has the burden of alleging that a "stigmatizing charge" has been publicly communicated by the county or a county official or county employee and requesting an opportunity to publicly clear his or her name.
 - ii. Where the applicant employee meets his or her burden of proof, the county shall provide the applicant or employee a public hearing opportunity to clear his or her name.

40. COUNTY GRIEVANCE COMMITTEE

- A. The County Grievance Committee shall be the Quorum Court.
- B. With respect to employees hired by the County Judge, the decision of the Grievance Committee shall be advisory-only to the County Judge, as is required by Ark. Con., Am. 55, Section 3.
- C. With respect to employees not hired by the county judge, the decision of the Grievance Committee shall be the decision of the County, as is permitted by Ark. Con., Am. 55, Sec.

- D. The purpose of the Grievance hearing is to enable the county, through its Grievance Committee, to hear from both the employee and the employee's supervisory official and to thereafter determine whether or not an executive decision of the county official or employee violates the constitution or the law. If the decision being challenged in the Grievance Hearing process is determined by the County Grievance Committee to violate the constitution or the law, then the County Grievance Committee shall declare the decision to be unconstitutional or illegal and shall direct the supervising elected county official to modify that executive decision to conform that decision to the requirements of the constitution or the law.
- E. The County Grievance Committee is not to substitute its operational judgment for that of an Elected Official if the decision of the county or employee does not violate the constitution or the law or the public policy of the State of Arkansas.
- F. If the employee's supervisory official refuses to abide by the County Grievance Committee's decision, then the County Grievance Committee must either access the courts to seek an order enjoining the supervisory official from acting contrary to the constitution or the law, or the County Grievance Committee shall be deemed to have acquiesced to the decision of the supervisory official and the decision of the supervisory official shall become the County's final decision with respect to the employment action taken.

41. RELEASE OF EMPLOYEE GRIEVANCE RECORDS
